Online Parenting Classes – Less Stress, More Fun!

Learn how to replace yelling, nagging and threatening with calm, confident parenting. Discover what experts know about raising responsible, respectful children.

Kenmore, WA, January 31, 2011 –

It's easy to get caught in the habit of yelling, criticizing and nagging to try to get your children to behave. Do you ever find yourself shouting things like "Hurry up!", "How many times do I have to ask you?", "Stop that!", or "Don't give me that look."? If so, you're like most parents!

While yelling at kids ultimately doesn't work well, it's easy to do and often gets short term results. If you want a calmer home and better long term results, taking an online Priceless Parenting class will give you the tools. You'll learn to respond to your children's behavior in ways that help them learn from their mistakes while encouraging responsibility and self-control.

You can get just the right information whatever your children's ages:

- Parenting Class - Ages 5 and Under
- Parenting Class - Ages 6 to 12
- Parenting Class - Ages 13 to 18

Each class consists of 11 self-paced lessons. You'll learn practical ideas through real parenting stories. At the end of each lesson you'll have the chance to practice what you just learned with your own children.

Priceless Parenting founder Kathy Slattengren explained "Originally we offered one parenting class for all ages of children. However, parents asked that we offer online classes aimed specifically at the age of their children. Parents can now learn what they need when they need it."

Chris Lewis, father of two young girls and author of the "Dad of Divas" blog, wrote "I truly appreciated all of the material that was covered within the training. I have never gone through a formal training like this before and I found myself always looking forward to the next lesson and the learning that it would impart. I already find myself using the knowledge from this course with my eldest (Diva-J)."
